

You are about to start the last season of your successful journey at Wizard! To celebrate this awesome achievement, you deserve gold, plenty of pure gold in learning: the New W12!

You have paced a brilliant path since your first day as a Wizard student! Can you close your eyes for a moment and remember the first new words, useful phrases or grammar points you learned at our school? You have started as a real beginner and now Level C1 is just around the corner!

This is more than a time to give a quick look back to think of teachers who helped you come to this far and friends you made through the years at Wizard. Now is the moment to gather a little more energy and enthusiasm to experience everything that the New W12 can bring to help you fulfill your aim to become an English speaker level C1.

The New W12 brings to you a diverse and extended number of activities, texts, audios, and videos that will help you feel a lot more comfortable and confident to keep conversations, make speeches and give your opinions about simple and complex subjects.

On There and Around you will be able to develop and test your abilities to comprehend, analyze and explain ideas and theories about important and relevant topics of our daily life through talks and presentations to be addressed to your classmates and teacher.

As a significant part of the end of your journey at Wizard, by completing successfully the New W12 you will be honored with the Benchmark Test certificate for C1, as well as the Wizard Certification for completing the 'Proficiency Series' at our school.

Your graduation year waits for you together with the New W12. We are sure we can make the end of this path as brilliant as you deserve! Keep counting on us the same way you have been doing! See you there!

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LESSON	VERBS	GRAMMAR	PAGE
L301	to target to transform	• modal verb would vs. used to	8
L303	to aggravate to stigmatize	• to be likely/unlikely/bound to	12
L305	to categorize to originate	• no article, a, an, the	16
L307	to certify to bridge	• verb tense review: Simple Present, Present Continuous, Present Perfect, Present Perfect Continuous	24
L309	to reverse to resurrect	• verbs that take both gerunds and infinitives with a change in meaning	28
L311	to bolster to flourish	• compound adjectives containing verbs	32
L313	to accelerate to monetize	• but for to give reasons	40
L315	to authenticate to expose	• language used for speculating	44
L317	to coin to propel	• uses of the infinitive	48
L319	to coerce to force	• uses of the verb to wish	56
L321	to betray to encounter	• parallel comparisons: the... the...	60
L323	to sob to unpick	• uses of the verb to get	64
L325	to recapitulate to retrace	• the future seen from the past	72
L327	to crisscross to prompt	• Perfect Infinitive form	76
L329	to baffle to unravel	• phrasal verbs that need a direct object	80

LESSON	VERBS	GRAMMAR	PAGE
L331	to cultivate to persist	• concession clauses	88
L333	to program to stimulate	• modal perfect to refer to the past	92
L335	to deploy to confer	• expressing hypothetical preferences	96
L337	to invade to grant	• gerund as nouns and after prepositions	104
L339	to conduct to interfere	• it as an empty object	108
L341	to shatter to converge	• emphatic do, does, did review	112
L343	to redefine to implement	• using do, so and not instead of a clause	120
L345	to analyze to ruin	• zero, first, second, third, and mixed conditionals review	124
L347	to dispel to unearth	• past tenses review	128
L349	to amend to penalize	• relative clauses with prepositions	136
L351	to dump to outweigh	• to be to + infinitive to describe official plans and arrangements • to be due to + infinitive to describe a formal arrangement	140
L353	to concede to debunk	• uses of such	144
L355	to strive to undermine	• introducing opinions	152
L357	to amass to boost	• expressions to describe habits and tendencies	156
L359	to correlate to popularize	• inversion after neither and nor	160